From: Norfolk Board of Health

Norfolk Board of Health Regulations require that the purchaser of a house be notified in the event that the sodium level in the house well water supply is greater than 20 milligrams per liter. That is the maximum concentration recommend by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency for use by persons who require a salt restricted diet.

Based on analysis performed on a sample collected on _____, the sodium level of the water is _____ milligrams per liter.

Sodium concentrations are variable as a consequence of well use over time and should be verified by subsequent tests.

I HAVE READ THE ABOVE NOTIFICATION AND UNDERSTAND ITS MEANING.
